Preface

About the authors

PART 1 — Business strategy

Chapter 1 What is ‘strategy’?

‘Strategy’ defined and its major aspects
The development of strategic thought: a brief history
Current theories of strategy
Levels of strategy
A model for business strategy thinking, analysis and action
Outline of the book
Is strategy different in smaller countries?
Summary
End of chapter questions

Chapter 2 Analysing business strategy: creating value

What constitutes a good business strategy: the 5Qs
So what does a good business strategy statement look like?
Creating value for customers
Creating value for key stakeholders
Strategy for different organisation types
Sustainability impacts on business strategy
Other issues in developing a business strategy
Leadership and business strategy
Dynamic strategy
Summary
End of chapter questions

Chapter 3 Analysing the external environment

Defining the industry
Analysing the macro-environment
Summarising the analysis of the macro-environment
Industry analysis
Summarising the analysis of industry profitability
Driving forces of industry growth and profitability
Understanding competitors: competitor analysis
Extending industry analysis
Green sustainability and industry analysis
Industry change and evolution
An alternative approach to industry analysis: scenario planning
From industry to market analysis
An industry framework for assessing international competitiveness:
   Porter’s diamond model
CONTENTS

Clusters and networks 97
Industry analysis for the public sector 99
Not-for-profit industry analysis 101
Summary 102
End of chapter questions 102

Chapter 4 Analysing the organisation’s resources and capabilities 105
Creating competitive advantage: the roles of resources, capabilities and strategic capabilities 107
Dynamic capabilities 113
Identifying strategic capabilities 119
Measuring capability performance 122
Sustainability, capabilities and strategic capabilities 126
Other issues 127
Summary 130
End of chapter questions 130

Chapter 5 Measuring strategic organisation performance 133
Frameworks for measuring strategic performance 135
Strategy maps: linking organisation performance measures to business models 144
Measuring strategic performance: how to do it 146
Comparing performance measures 150
Assessing and communicating performance information 152
Recommendations for successful application of a balanced performance measurement approach 155
Studies of ‘successful’ organisations 156
Summary 159
End of chapter questions 160

Chapter 6 Gap analysis and business-level strategic options 163
Gap analysis 165
Business strategic options: moving from current to future business strategy 171
Strategies for different situations 193
Connecting innovation and business strategy 193
Sustainability and business strategy options 196
Public sector strategy options 199
Not-for-profit strategy options 200
Summary 200
End of chapter questions 201

Chapter 7 Strategic decision making 203
The rational approach to decision making 206
Limitations on rational decision making in practice 207
Different conceptual approaches to decision making 216
A practical model for effective strategic decision making 217
Learning better decision making from failure 223
Chapter 8 Dynamic competitive strategy
- An introduction to game theory and its applications to competitive strategy
- A general multi-competitor framework of business relationships:
  - the PARTS model
- Some specific games: the case of hypercompetition
- Industry evolution
- Sustainability and dynamic competitive strategy
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

PART 2 — Corporate strategy

Chapter 9 Corporate/multi-business strategy
- The golden rules for corporate strategy
- Reasons for developing corporations: the diversification process
- The four questions (4Qs) of corporate strategy
- The central role of the corporate centre: how to add value
- How is diversification ‘related’?
- Unrelated diversification
- Implementation: head office role and size
- Advantages claimed for diversification
- Evidence of success
- Evaluating the performance of a multi-business portfolio
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Chapter 10 Acquisitions and alliances
- Acquisitions
- Managing the integration process
- Alliances
- Divestment
- Summary
- End of chapter questions

Chapter 11 International strategy
- Forces leading to the internationalisation of business
- Why go international?
- Barriers to international expansion
- Four international strategic options
- Alternative international strategic options
- Implementing international business strategy
- Sustainability and international strategic options
- Summary
- End of chapter questions
PART 3 — Implementation

Chapter 12 Capabilities, systems and structure
A model of strategic implementation: what to change
Capabilities
Systems
Structure
Non-traditional structures
Summary
End of chapter questions

Chapter 13 Leadership, people and culture
Leadership
People
Culture
Perception
Communication
Corporate governance: the role of the board of directors
Ethics
Sustainability and implementation
Summary
End of chapter questions

Chapter 14 Change management
Perspectives on change
A general model of the process of change management
Incremental change processes
Transformational change processes
Change over time: punctuated equilibrium change
Resistance to change
Summary
End of chapter questions

Cases
Case 1 The ore wars: the Australian iron ore industry
Case 2 Coursera and MOOCs: what is the business model?
Case 3 Taylors Wines: from good to great?
Case 4 Berry Street: we never give up
Case 5 Cochlear: Hear now. And always
Case 6 Main Roads Western Australia: rebuilding organisational capabilities
Case 7 BHP Billiton: managing a corporate business portfolio
Case 8 Mittal Steel: the takeover of Arcelor
Case 9 Renault–Nissan alliance: developing electric vehicles
Case 10 Marriott Corporation: a model of distinctive growth

Glossary
Index