

Is it Risky?

by Jan Pritchett

I want to go riding with Lou
But Mum says ...
“Is it a risky thing to do?
Can I really have trust in you?”

Is it? Can she?

I might run into that Mean Mike
I might fall off my wonky bike
I might not get over the hump
I might crash down after the jump

But ...

Mike is out of town now, I know
I can ride my bike like a pro

No risk!

I want to go shopping with Jo
But Dad says ...
“Maybe you can, I do not know.
Are you old enough to go?”

Can I? Am I?

I might not find my friend Jo there
I might not have a thing to wear
I might not have enough to spend
I might not get there in the end

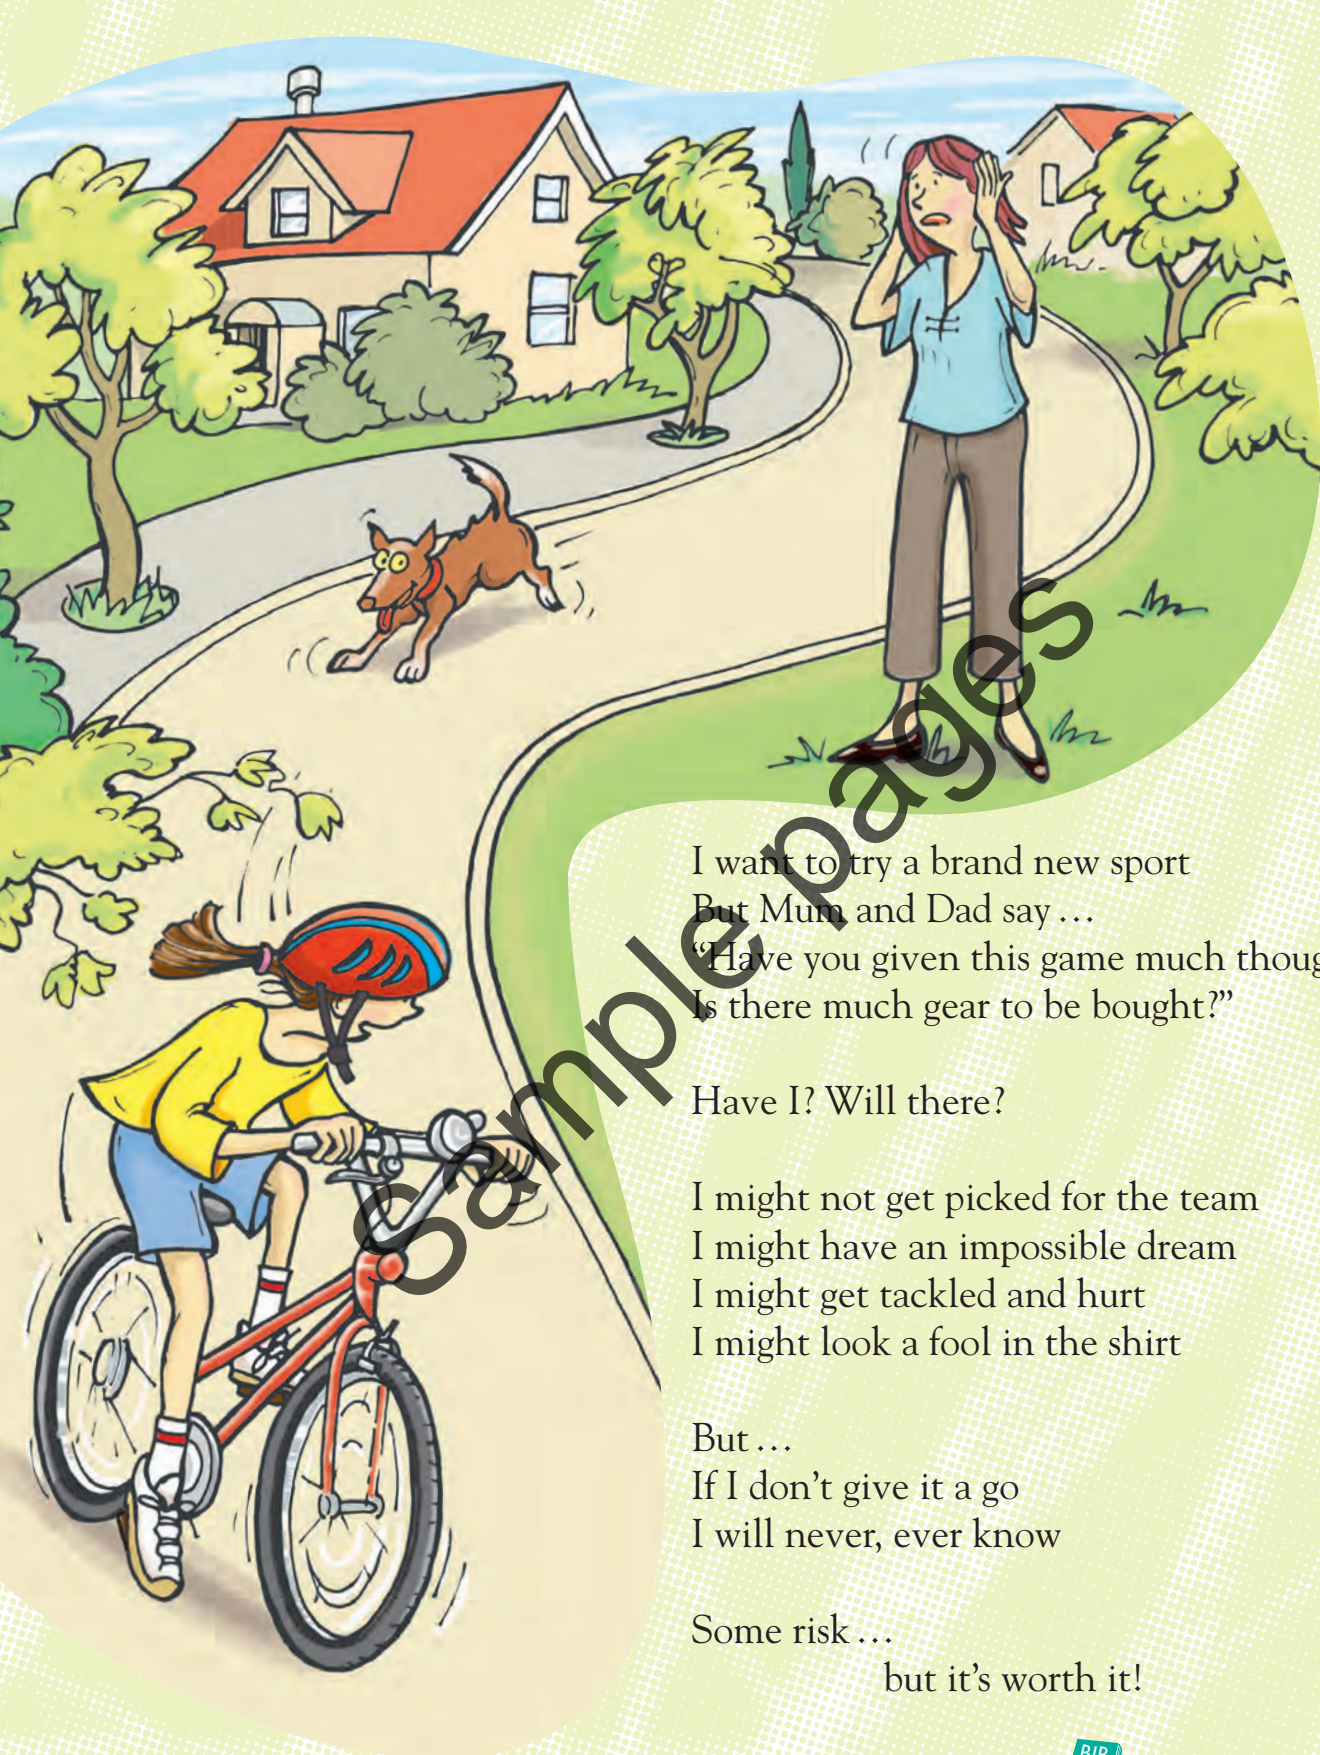

But ...

It’s just at the end of the street,
Lots of my friends go there to meet

No risk!

I want to try a brand new sport
But Mum and Dad say ...
“Have you given this game much thought?
Is there much gear to be bought?”

Have I? Will there?

I might not get picked for the team
I might have an impossible dream
I might get tackled and hurt
I might look a fool in the shirt

But ...
If I don't give it a go
I will never, ever know

Some risk ...
but it's worth it!
